Dear Editor,

Recently, my Mum asked me to make a rice pudding as she was going out.

I gave my Dad the first taste, but he immediately ran into the kitchen for a drink of water.

I soon discovered I had used pepper instead of nutmeg. My rice turned out to be pretty hot stuff!

Nicola Castle, Reading

Here's 50p — buy yourself a cook book . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

In the school holidays my pals and I started a pop group. We hired a drum off a boy for 50p, but now we'd like to save up for one of our own.

Martin Parkes, Swanage.

Well, getting your letter published has earned you something towards it, Martin. Let's hope we see your group on "Top of the Pops" one day . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

Thank you very much for the gift you put in WHOOPEE! when it first started. I was in hospital at the time the first issue came out, and I had great fun with the squirting ring because I tricked the nurses and doctors with it.

Julie Harris, Exeter.

Er . . . hope there was no ill-feeling . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

My favourite pop star is SUZI QUATRO, and I watch her every time she appears on television.

Is Ossie your Pop expert?

Alan O'Toole, Birmingham.

Well, he certainly has me in a SPIN most of the time, but I won't stop to DISC-uss that now — let's enjoy a pic of Suzi instead . . . Editor.

Dear Snap Happy,

Have you got an instant picture camera. I think you must have, for every time you take pictures you produce them in a minute or two.

David Eastty, Rochford.

Yes, you're right — and I've other cameras, too. I'd like to see some snaps from readers, especially if WHOOPEE! is in the picture. Something exciting and unusual . . . Snap Happy.

Dear Editor,

One afternoon my family went to visit my Grandma, who was in hospital with Pneumonia . . . and she was much better.

When we got back home my little sister Emma asked Mummy if people could catch OLDMONIA!

We all laughed.

Katie Frething, East Barnet.

Here's another funny thing. If I suffered from MEASLES and you caught it off me — would it be called YOU-SLES? . . . Editor.

Dear Stoker,

Why don't you sign a PEACE TREATY with the cook and the steward, so they leave you alone as long as you stay away from them?

Michael Pendsay, Wembley.

I'd love to stay away from them! Trouble is, I can't stay away from grub, and they're always around when I want some . . . Stoker.

OOH, IT'S OSSIE'S

HI, FANS! As you'll see this week, I've promised Kaz, Yvonne and Carol from West Bromwich I'd give some info about ME . . . in small doses.

Well, here's the first gem . . . my hair is BROWN! Please don't write and ask for cuttings . . . one day I might need all the hair I can get, cos' you should see the Baldies in this building (only joking, fellers!)

Now let's get on to the letters:

Dear Ossie,

I am a great fan of yours. I think you're very lucky . . . even though your job is a bit dangerous.

Kerry Mussey, South Harrow.

You're quite right about my job being dangerous, Kerry . . . only the other day the Post Room muscleman flattened me with the sack of WHOOPEE! mail. Then when I bent down to pick all the letters up I tore the seat out of my flares. I had to stitch up the seams with staples to get through the day!

Dear Ossie,

We haven't heard much about you . . . well, not as much as my friends and I would like anyway.

My name is Karen (Kaz for short) and I'm thirteen. My friends Carol and Yvonne are both twelve.

I'm all mixed up, girls! It looks as if Kaz wrote, but Carol gave her West Bromwich address . . . so I think it's best that you share the reward. As for information about me, no doubt you've read the little snippet at the top of my column! Don't want to spoil you all at once!

Dear Ossie,

Don't you get bored doing the same thing every day, working for the Editor?

Kenneth Binstead, Portchester.

Tired, yes . . . but certainly never bored, pal.

Dear Ossie,

I'm always doing work for my Mum, and I hardly ever get a rest. I'd like to be an Office Boy because you probably get more rest than me.

Tony McLanders, Newcastle.

Aw, what's a few jobs in return for all the things a Mum does for you . . . the cooking, the ironing, the washing, the cleaning etc . . . etc . . . Ossie's MUM. (Trust Mum not to let me get a word in on that letter, pals!)
